My name is Marbely Vasquez, and I am currently an 11th-grade student. I am writing this letter to introduce myself and share my interests, skills, and goals as I begin preparing for future academic and career opportunities.

One of my strengths is my ability to give thoughtful advice and honest “reality checks” to others. I am confident in expressing my ideas and enjoy engaging in discussions, especially when it involves defending a point of view. I believe these skills have helped me become a strong communicator and have built my confidence when speaking with others.

In school, I am working toward building skills that will support my future career. I am especially interested in careers where I can help people, such as becoming an immigration lawyer, a therapist, or possibly a stylist. These interests reflect my desire to connect with others, understand different perspectives, and make a positive impact in people’s lives. I enjoy opportunities where I can listen, give advice, and support others in meaningful ways.

Looking ahead, my goal is to continue my education and pursue a career that allows me to advocate for others and help them through important challenges. Whether I choose law, therapy, or another path, I am motivated to work hard and grow both personally and professionally.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I appreciate your consideration and look forward to any future opportunities.

Sincerely,
Marbely Vasquez
